My Help Comes From the Lord

KJV Psalm 121:1-8 I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help. My help cometh from the LORD, which made heaven and earth. He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: he that keepeth thee will not slumber. Behold, he that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep. The LORD is thy keeper: the LORD is thy shade upon thy right hand. The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night. The LORD shall preserve thee from all evil: he shall preserve thy soul. The LORD shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore.

This psalm is part of a group of psalms, 120-134, that are called the “Song of Ascents” or “Song of Degrees”. It is thought that they are called this either because the Israelites sang these psalms as they made their way up to Jerusalem or they were sung or read on the 15 steps in the temple between the Court of the Women and the Court of the Israelites. The “Song of Ascents” are traditionally sung during the Jewish Feast of Booths or Tabernacles in the autumn. The Feast of Tabernacles commemorates Israel’s wandering in the wilderness thus the pilgrimage theme of these psalms. These psalms would be sung as the as the worshipers approached the hills of Jerusalem.

Psalm 121 opens up with the psalmist saying “I lift my eyes to the hills.” It could be that the psalmist was looking at the hills of Jerusalem when he wrote this psalm. Hills and mountains are quite significant in the Bible as we see God speaking so often from mountains or hills as He communicates with His people. Moses encountered God at Horeb, the mountain of God, in the burning bush. He would later receive the 10 commandments from God on Mt. Sinai. It was on Mt. Carmel that Elijah had his showdown with the prophets of Baal. In the New Testament we see Jesus giving a sermon on a mountain. We also see him on a mountain praying and later being transfigured before Peter, James, and John on a mountain. Jesus was crucified on a hill called Golgotha. It was from the mountain called Olivet that Jesus ascended into heaven.

The psalmist asks the question “From where does my help come?” He looks to the hills and wonders where his help comes from. He then makes this great statement “My help comes from the Lord, who made heaven and earth.” The hills and mountains of this earth offer no help for us but rather the One who created them and so often used them to communicate with His people is the One who helps us. The Lord is indeed the One who provides everything we need to sustain life in the here and now. He is never asleep on the job but rather keeps watch over us always. He is our strength and our protector. He is with us always even unto the end of the world.

The church still today looks to the hills and asks the question “From where does my help come?” The answer lies within the season we have now entered, that is the Lenten season. It is during this season that we make our annual journey toward “Holy Week”. We make our way by faith to the hill called Mt. Calvary. There we behold our Lord being crucified and we realize He is being crucified because of my sin. We sing with the song writer “O Sacred Head now wounded with grief and shame weighed down, Now scornfully surrounded, with thorns Thine only crown! Once reigning in the highest in light and majesty, Dishonored now Thou diest, Yet here I worship Thee”. “Lo, here I fall, my Saviour, Tis I deserve Thy place: Look on me with Thy favor, Vouchsafe to me Thy grace. Receive me, my Redeemer; My Shepherd, make me Thine, Of every good the Fountain, Thou are the Spring of mine!” It is from this hill that we find our help. It is on this hill that we see Jesus our Lord and as we observe, by the eyes of faith, Jesus in His suffering, death, and resurrection, we are reminded of another mountain recorded in Hebrews 12:18-24 For ye are not come unto the mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, nor unto blackness, and darkness, and tempest, And the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words; which voice they that heard intreated that the word should not be spoken to them any more: (For they could not endure that which was commanded, And if so much as a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned, or thrust through with a dart: And so terrible was the sight, that Moses said, I exceedingly fear and quake:) But ye are come unto mount Sion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels, To the general assembly and church of the firstborn, which are written in heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect, And to Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel.

Our help truly has come from the Lord who spoke this world into existence and has breathed new life into His fallen creation.

2 Corinthians 5:17 Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.

Have a blessed Lenten season and glorious Easter!
God’s Peace, Pastor Dennis Hannu

I would like to thank all my church family for the many prayers before, during & after my surgery. The prayers & love shown to me certainly were a great comfort. Thanks also for the many cards & gifts. Your kindness was greatly appreciated. You are special. God bless you all. In love & God's Peace

~Armas Aho.

We wish to thank Pastor Dennis and the Spruce Grove family of God for their love, for their energy, for their constant concern for our needs during the time of our loved one's, Norman, illness and final days to his passing. Your love covered so many areas, food during the chemo/radiation period, offers of transportation, encouragement and then to the time when life was ebbing away. You would come to spend time with Norm, to listen to his concerns and encouragement. And then to his passing with gifts of food, meals at the church during the funeral time. Also your offers of space in bedrooms, the camp, for family accommodations, prayers, cards, gifts, support in so, so many ways, were so appreciated.

May God Bless you. Phillipians 1:3 I thank God for every remembrance of you.

Love in Christ Jesus.

~Shirley Kangas with daughters, Rene, Roslyn, Robin, Andrea & Amber and their families.

Funeral

REVEREND
NORMAN E. KANGAS

Rev. Norman E. Kangas, age 83, of Wolf Lake, MN, formerly a long time resident and Pastor in Ironwood, MI, peacefully entered the presence of his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ on Sunday evening, February 26th, 2017 at his home near Wolf Lake, surrounded by his loved ones, following a valiant battle against cancer.

Norman was born on November 14, 1933 to Edwin and Linne Kangas on his grandfather Kangas' farm near his beloved Wolf Lake. As a boy he attended the District 721 Country School and the Pickeral Lake Country School near his home. He then went on to attend high school in Frazee. On December 1, 1953, Norman entered the United States Army where he proudly served his country during the Korean War. Following his honorable discharge in September of 1955, he began his studies at Bemidji State University. On September 8, 1956, Norman was united in marriage to Shirley M. Koskiniemi at the Spruce Grove Apostolic Lutheran Church near Wolf Lake. Their marriage was blessed with five daughters. A short time after their marriage, Norman and Shirley moved to Fairbanks, Alaska where Norman sold automobiles for a time. In 1959, they returned to Minnesota where Norman took over operating the Osage Supermarket in Osage, MN which they had purchased earlier, while still in Alaska. He ran the store until selling it in 1963. They then moved to Detroit Lakes where they purchased a home and Norman resumed his studies in earning a college degree at Bemidji State University. In 1965 he graduated from college with a bachelors degree in business education. He then began a successful career selling text books throughout the region. In 1970, Norman felt the Lord calling him to deeper study of God's Word. He attended the Inter-Lutheran Seminary in Minneapolis graduating in 1973. He then accepted a call to minister in Ironwood, MI where he devoted over 40 years to preaching the word of God as an Apostolic Lutheran Pastor. Norman and Shirley always enjoyed returning to his beloved Wolf Lake where he looked forward to the healing therapy of hard physical farm work completing necessary chores on the family farm and restoring the old farm house for he and Shirley to someday retire. He loved to tinker with his collection of old tractors; John Deere, Farmall, Ford, Case, Co-op; he enjoyed using them all. He and Shirley also enjoyed traveling across the U.S. and Alaska visiting their daughters and other loved ones. Norman especially enjoyed visiting the Holy Lands and walking where Jesus himself had walked, performed miracles and ministered to his people. Above all, Norman loved to speak with others about his Lord and Savior. Norman memorized great portions of scripture which he would recite to others sharing God's love and the redemptive work Christ did on the cross for all of us so that they could accept God's gift of grace and forgiveness and have the assurance of everlasting life. Throughout his life time of ministry, Norman always had a special love and compassion for the down trodden and children. Above all, Norman loved his precious wife, his daughters, his grandchildren and great grandchildren with all his heart.

He will be lovingly remembered by his wife Shirley who over the 60 years of their married lives together, brought him great joy and fulfillment; their five daughters: Rene (Rick) Durkee of Winchester, New Hampshire, Roslyn (Mark) Mitchell of Anchorage, AK, Robin (Steve) Estola of Hurley, WI, Andrea (Chris) Raasio of Hancock, MI and Amber (Philip) Impola of Wellford, SC; 26 grandchildren and 9 precious great grandchildren; two sisters: Debbie Carlson and Doreen (John) McIntyre; two brothers: Marvin (Linda) Kangas and Frank (Joan) Haataja; as well as many nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Norman was preceded in death by his parents; his step-father, Edwin Haataja; three brothers: Russell, Floyd and Billy and a sister, Delores.

Funeral services were held on Friday, March 3, 2017 at the Spruce Grove Apostolic Lutheran Church near Wolf Lake, MN with the Reverends Dennis Hannu, Steve Estola and Elmer Yliniemi officiating. Deborah Aho was the organist. The casket bearers were Rick Durkee, Mark Mitchell, Steve Estola, Chris Raasio, Philip Impola, Blake Estola, Zachery Estola and Austin Estola. Honorary casket bearers were: Marvin LaGrew, Marvin Kangas, Frank Haataja, Debbie Carlson, Doreen McIntyre and Micah Brewer. Military honors were provided by the Star of the North Marine Corps League. Interment will be made in the Pickeral Lake Cemetery.
