Here I Raise My Ebenezer

The hymn “Come, Thou Fount” has in its second stanza an interesting line that reads as follows: “Here I raise mine Ebenezer; Hither by Thy help I’m come.” This language is taken from 1 Samuel 7:12 “Then Samuel took a stone, and set it between Mizpeh and Shen, and called the name of it Ebenezer, saying, Hitherto hath the LORD helped us.” (Samuel set up this stone after the Lord had helped the Israelites defeat the Philistines in battle.) The hymn was written by Robert Robinson in 1758 who was converted to the Christian faith after listening to George Whitefield preach. He was 17 years old when he and his friends went to the meeting to mock “the poor deluded Methodists” and instead he was so moved by the message that Whitefield preached that he was converted to Christ. Robinson became a pastor and hymn writer and penned this hymn when he was 23 years old.

The Ebenezer stone was raised as a memorial for the ancient Israelites by Samuel, so that every time they would see the stone they would recall how God has helped them in their time of need. This same stone became a symbolic reminder for Robert Robinson of how God had intervened in his life through the message of His Word. The rest of the second stanza reads as follows: “And I hope, by Thy good pleasure, safely to arrive at home. Jesus sought me when a stranger, wandering from the fold of God; He, to rescue me from danger, Interposed His precious blood.” Robinson makes a very important statement in his hymn and that is that the blood of Jesus is the thing that has rescued us from danger. To interpose is to intervene and Christ intervened on our behalf by shedding his blood as the atoning sacrifice for our sins. To interpose is also to intercede and Christ intercedes on our behalf before the Father; Hebrews 7:25 Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them. Hebrews 9:24 For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us:

When we sing of raising our Ebenezer, we are in reality singing of the work of our God carried out through His Son Jesus Christ. The Christ event, His death and resurrection becomes our Ebenezer stone. It is this work carried out for us that rescues us from our greatest dangers, sin and unbelief, and leaves us indebted to His grace. “Oh to grace how great a debtor daily I’m constrained to be! Let Thy goodness like a fetter, Bind my wandering heart to Thee: Prone to wander, Lord, I feel it, Prone to leave the God I love; Here’s my heart, O take and seal it; Seal it for Thy courts above. Amen.”

As I considered this hymn my thoughts went to Memorial Day and graduation. Every year we celebrate Memorial Day in the United States. People go to the graveyards and lay flowers on the graves of fallen soldiers. When I was a boy growing up in Rindge NH, we would attend the parade that was held in the center of our town. The parade would wind its way down to a cemetery where someone would play the taps and then the gun salute would take place, much to our delight. We would march to various memorials in town, where this was repeated in remembrance of the fallen soldiers. In essence we would visit Ebenezer stones and there remember what a great sacrifice these people had made for their country. What a marvelous gift these fallen soldiers have given us, to lay their lives down so that we can live in freedom today. We raise up these Ebenezer stones (memorials) so that we will never forget them and their sacrifice.

Graduation is of course an annual event in our country as well. Students finish their education and collect their diplomas. It is a pivotal moment in their lives as they consider their future. What are they going to do now? What does the future hold for them? The high school student may be considering a higher education or going off to work. The college student perhaps looks forward to beginning the career that they have been training for. They are setting their Ebenezer stones up and with one foot planted in their past, they move into the future. They move into their future with all the influence of their past marking their lives.

It seems we all can look at our past and recognize something or someone who has influenced us in some way or another. We pray, that as our nation moves further into the 21st century, that we would never forget the sacrifice of our soldiers who stained the battlefields of this world with their blood to give us the freedom we enjoy today. We pray that our students would have success where ever their future leads them. We pray that we all would be reminded daily of the One Ebenezer Stone that transcends all others, the moment in history that forever changed the course of this world, the death and resurrection of our Lord. Christ is risen!! He is risen indeed!!

God’s Peace, Pastor Dennis Hannu

Funeral

Skyler Thomas Impola, age 5, went to be with his Jesus on May 1st, 2014.

Skyler was born on April 8th, 2009 in Portland, OR, joyfully welcomed by Jethro and Molly (Hanson) Impola. They lived in Yacolt, WA until 2012, when they moved to MN. He treasured his younger siblings, Rystin and Vayah, and looked forward to meeting another soon. Skyler attended Spruce Grove Apostolic Lutheran Church with his family. He loved to sing, create, play with his siblings and friends, help on the farm, and to learn about everything. His questions about Heaven have been answered, his love for Jesus has multiplied. Skyler had a generous, tender heart, and his big smile will be remembered by many. His grandparents, Paul and Esther (Aho) Impola and Tom and Wendy (Barney) Hanson, along with 19 aunts and uncles, and 21 cousins and many friends feel the emptiness of loss, but the hope of meeting him again. Skyler knew many Bible verses that have comforted and encouraged. 'I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me' -Phillipians 4:13.

The funeral was held on Thursday, May 8th at the Spruce Grove Apostolic Lutheran Church, the visitation was the evening before, also at the church. Pastor Dennis Hannu officiated. Singing included Skyler's favorite songs and a song by his Sunday School class. Pallbearers and honorary pallbearers were his uncles, Jonas Impola, Phillip Impola, Loren Impola, Justin Impola, Calvin Impola, Naaman Impola, Damen Hanson, and Jaden Hanson. The interment was in the Balmi Cemetery near Wolf Lake.

"We Care" Program

Whenever you shop at Central Market in Detroit Lakes, ask for the We Care stamp on your receipt (They usually do that automatically) and turn in your receipts to Miriam Yliniemi. They give a 1% rebate to our church for all sales receipts turned in. Miriam turns them in quarterly for rebate. So far only a few people have turned in receipts and yet over the years we have received over $2000 in rebates for the church so they add up even if it seems insignificant. The receipts must not be over a year old.

Care Committee

Spruce Grove Church Care Committee

The Spruce Grove Church Care Committee was established a few years ago. The purpose of this committee is to show care to those in the church and community who are in need of it. This could be shown with a card for someone who is ill, a gas card for those who are travelling to and from hospitals, flowers for a family who has lost a loved one or many other ways.

If you know of anyone who may benefit from this outreach please contact someone from the Care Committee: Hannah Aho, Amanda Aho or Carrie Aho
